

Reviews

FILE, 1.1E.04.001

PART OF: DAVE BRUBECK COLLECTION > PAPERS > CLIPPINGS > REVIEWS > REVIEWS

DATE

Created January – June, 1969

---

Collection Contents

Reviews, January – June, 1969 (94 records)

Roderick Nordell, "Discs: The Brubeck Spectrum," The Christian Science Monitor
R. J. R., "More Jazz by Brubeck," The Catholic Weekly (Australia)
Dick Banks, "Dave Brubeck blends jazz, classical expression," Observer (Chapel Hill, North Carolina)
Forester, "The Brubeck Re-Entry," Jazz Scene, The Age (Australia)
Ron Sullivan, "Brubeck at the Top," The Advertiser (Australia)
Marian McPartland, "Dave Brubeck: 'Half-Genius, Half-Square' and Impossible to Pigeonhole," High Fidelity Magazine (Great Barrington, Massachusetts)
T. F. C., "The Last Time We saw Paris," Electronics (Australia)
"The Brubeck oratorio as it was" (Light in the Wilderness), Lewiston Evening Journal (Maine)
"A Candid Look At The Open Rehearsal of Brubeck's Oratorio At Bates," Lewiston Evening Journal (Maine)
Edith Thayer, "Crowds pack Bates Chapel to hear Brubeck Oratorio" (Light in the Wilderness), Lewiston Daily Sun (Maine)
William Buchanan, "Blind jazzman says it all at Festival," The Boston Globe (Massachusetts)
William Buchanan, "Festival walk-on by Kirk a Saver," The Boston Globe (Massachusetts)
"Age of Innocence," The Christian Science Monitor
Ernia Santosuosso, "Globe's '69 jazz fest best ever adding rock and psychedelic Touch," The Boston Globe (Massachusetts)
Sherwood L. Weingarten, "Vinyl Vignettes," Courier-Post (Camden, New Jersey)
"Brubeck trio and Mulligan," The Otago Daily Times (New York)
Fremont Power, "A test for the ear--by Brubeck," The Indianapolis News (Indiana)
Russell Chandler, "Brubeck's oratorio won't pass as Jazz," Washington Star (Washington, D.C.)
Donald Mintz, "Music: Pop, Brubeck & the religious revival," Washington Star (Washington, D.C.)
Milton Berliner, "Brubeck oratorio impressive at cathedral" (Light in the Wilderness), Washington Daily News (Washington, D.C.)
Paul Hume, "Brubeck leads band, chorus for cathedral Stomp," The Oregonian (Portland, Oregon)
Paul Hume, "'Jazz Has Come Home to the Church- Where it All Began': Brubeck makes for a swinging Cathedral," The Washington Post (Washington, D.C.)
Lawrence Sears, "Dave Brubeck oratorio turned-on Performance," The Washington Evening Star (Washington, D.C.)
Ron Sullivan, "Timely Jazz," The Advertiser (Australia)
"Concert Receives standing Ovation"
Ron Roberts, "Freshly-minted jazz from Brubeck-Mulligan," The Harvest (Australia),
"Brubeck: The Light in the Wilderness," Consumer Reports (Mt. Vernon, New York)
Eugene Kassman, "Brubeck Came to Town and Did Curious Thing," Sentinel (Rockville, Maryland)
John H. Harvey, "Brubeck Work Is Deeply Serious, Sincere," St. Paul Press (St. Paul, Maryland)
Gordon Gapper, "A walk on that Brubeckian wild Side," The Flint Journal (Flint, Michigan)
Hap O'Daniel, "Dave Brubeck writes his first Oratorio," The London Times
"Records: Brubeck, Barber," Oakland Tribune (California)
William Littler, "Brubeck's Light wasn't all that bright" (Light in the Wilderness), Toronto Daily Star (Canada)
Alastair Lawrie, "Good, solid & swinging" (Light in the Wilderness), The Globe & Mail (Toronto, Canada)
Helen McNamara, "Rare, beautiful night of jazz" (Light in the Wilderness), The Telegram (Toronto, Canada)
Vianne Webb, "Jazz presentation gets high praise," New Port News Times Herald (Virginia)
Libby Price, "Dave Brubeck Spans Jazz-Classical Gap," Oklahoma Journal (Oklahoma City, Oklahoma)
Leonard Feather, "Brubeck and Mulligan share concert Stage," Los Angeles Times (California)
"Dave Brubeck Trio Featuring Gerry Mulligan (Blues Roots)," Billboard (Cincinnati, Ohio)
R. R., "Steve Addiss and Bill Crofut: Eastern Ferris Wheel," Stereo Review (New York)
T. F. C., "Compadres -- Dave Brubeck and Gerry Mulligan," Electronics (Australia)
"Choir and Instruments (Light in the Wilderness)," Audio Magazine (Philadelphia, Pennsylvania)
"Blues Roots -- Dave Brubeck Trio Featuring Gerry Mulligan," Cash Box Magazine (New York)
Mary Nic Shenk, "CBS presents Dave Brubeck's 'The Light in the Wilderness,'" St. Petersburg Times (Florida)
John Christie, "Dave Brubeck plays own oratorio with Symphony," Terre Haute Tribune (Indiana)
Charles McKinney, Record Reviews, News, "Brubeck knows blues new album Shows," Indianapolis News (Indiana)
Tom Laughlin, "Jazz portions best in Brubeck's Light," Norfolk Ledger-Star (Virginia)
David Nicolette, "Brubeck's composition stirs Fountain church Audience" (Light in the Wilderness), Grand Rapids Press (Michigan)
David Nicolette, "Brubeck's composition stirs in Execution Here Sunday" (Light in the Wilderness), Grand Rapids Press (Michigan)

The Brubeck Collection

Les Zacheis, "Cornell Oratorio Gives Smooth Performance," The Cedar Rapids Gazette
"Brubeck" (Light in the Wilderness), The Music Ministry Magazine (Nashville, Tennessee)
Richard Schwarze, "Brubeck's upbeat oratorio seduces" (Light in the Wilderness), Dayton Journal Herald (Ohio)
Leonard Feather, "Making Jazz LPs That Sell," The Los Angeles Times (California)
Bill Hume, "Country Music 'Greats' Teamed in New Release, Record," Reel Roundup, The Albuquerque Journal (New Mexico)
Harriet Johnson, "Cincinnati Brings Brubeck's 'Light', Words and Music," The New York Post (New York)
Harold C. Schonberg, "Music: Brubeck Oratorio," The New York Times (New York)
Henry S. Humphreys, "CSO, Brubeck, Miami Chorus get ovation in New York," Cincinnati Enquirer (Ohio)
Betty Dietz Krebs, "Ohioans Win N.Y. Audience," Dayton Daily News, (Dayton, Ohio)
"N.Y. Critics Argue Over Brubeck But Cheer CSO-Miami" (New York)
Winthrop Sargeant, "Jazz & 'classical' music have never mixed" (Light in the Wilderness), The New Yorker (New York)
Betty Dietz Krebs, "Ancient Bergen Digs Brubeck's Jazz Works," Dayton Daily News (Ohio)
Betty Dietz Krebs, "Wreath of Honor given Cincy orchestra in Norway," Dayton Daily News (Ohio)
"Oratorium von Brubeck," Berliner Morgen Post (Germany)
"Dave Brubeck auf christlichen Pfaden," Der Abend (Berlin, Germany)
Fred Kirby, "Brubeck's Oratorio a Bright Light in Jazz-Classic Music," Billboard
Betty Dietz Krebs, "Rotterdam audience goes for Brubeck," Dayton Daily News (Ohio)
Betty Dietz Krebs, "Brubeck, Touring Musicians Get Big Rotterdam Reception," Springfield Daily News (Ohio)
"Jesu Lehre mit Jazz" (Light in the Wilderness), Nacht de Pesche
"Schaum mit Synkopen" (Light in the Wilderness), Der Tagespiel
"Musikalische Halbwelt -- bengalisch angeleuchtet" (Light in the Wilderness), Feuilleton Berlin (Germany)
"Jazz in kleiner Dosierung" (Light in the Wilderness), Spandauer Volksblatt (Germany)
"Jazzmusik und Bibelwort" (Light in the Wilderness), Telegraf
C. Van Raay, "Sympathetic failure in Rotterdam's Doelen" (Light in the Wilderness), De Tijd (Rotterdam, Netherlands)
"No full house for Dave Brubeck" (Light in the Wilderness), Trouw (Netherlands)
"Jazz-Zitate fur Satan" (Light in the Wilderness), Berliner Morgenpost (Germany)
"Dave Brubeck" ("Light in the Wilderness," Decca), School Musician & Director
Jean Marque, untitled review of "Light in the Wilderness", La France (France)
Florence Mothe, "The 20th Festival of Bordeaux, Dave Brubeck & the Cincinnati Symphony" (Light in the Wilderness) (France)
Alan Rich, "Old hat wears well" (New York)
Priscilla Witter, "Cincinnati Orchestra plays Brubeck in Bordeaux" (Light in the Wilderness), International Herald Tribune
"CSO, Chorus lauded by Morrow Airman," Cincinnati Post & Times Star (Ohio)
Dirix, "All American evening" (Light in the Wilderness), Volksgazet (Germany?)
"The Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra with original program is guest in Antwerp" (Light in the Wilderness), Gazet van Antwerpen (Belgium)
"Do-it-yourself night becomes big evening for Dave Brubeck," Denver Post (Colorado)
Jacques Stehman, "Le Cincinnati Orchestra a Anvers" (Light in the Wilderness), Le Soir (Belgium)
"Londoners cheer Brubeck oratorio" (Light in the Wilderness), Ft. Lauderdale News (Florida)
Henry S. Humphreys, "Oratorio? si! (Brandenburg) Gate? no!" Cincinnati Enquirer (Ohio)
Derek Jewell, "Out of the Wilderness"
T. H., "Brubeck's damp squib (Light)," Telegraph
Aad Van der Ven, "Irritating oratorio by Brubeck" (Light in the Wilderness) (Netherlands)
Elly Salome, "Jazz pianist with/ oratorio in the Doelen" (Light in the Wilderness) (Rotterdam, Netherlands)
F. Papon, "With Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra---Dave Brubeck in Antwerp" (Light in the Wilderness) (Belgium)
"Brubeck's oratorio---weak mixture" (Light in the Wilderness) (Belgium)
A. C. P. Seijffert, "Brubeck's Light in the Wilderness" (Netherlands)